

TRIO SNACOV – VĂLEANU – STANCIU

The trio made up of Carmen Snacov (oboe), Dan Andrei Văleanu (clarinet) and Maria-Alexandra Stanciu (bassoon) was born spontaneously, thanks to the ConnectArts project. They knew each other, they were already going to the Bucharest National Music University together, and had played together in various formulas, but never as a woodwind trio. Setting up this group, realising during the rehearsals that everything falls naturally into place and that they love what they sound like together – all of this was a fortunate accident. They want to continue playing together, both because they believe such an initiative is necessary in Romania, and because they like chamber music. The right repertoire for them will certainly be created, step by step.

From the author of this introduction – fingers crossed!

